

Charlotte C. Meade

Mediator

Participating in numerous mediations throughout her career as a litigator, Charlotte Meade recently decided to concentrate her career on full time mediation with Perry Dampf Dispute Solutions. Charlotte recently completed the Mediating the Litigated Case™ certification program at Pepperdine University School of Law's Straus Institute. The program reinforced what Charlotte already knew, that she was passionate about dispute resolution and looked forward to serving the legal community as a neutral.

504-416-3975

ccm@meadeyoung.com

<https://www.perrydampf.com/neutrals/charlotte-meade>

Concentrations

Malpractice and Professional Liability

Fee Disputes

Insurance and Reinsurance Claims

Business Disputes

Commercial and Tort Litigation

Education

BA, University of Virginia (1999)

JD, Loyola University School of Law, New Orleans (2005)

Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution, Pepperdine University, Mediating the Litigated Case™ (2023)

Recognitions

Board of Trustees of Ecole Bilingue de la Nouvelle Orleans, current officer and immediate past Board Chair

Worked for Representative Richard Baker of the LA (6th District) in Washington D.C.

Biography

Charlotte Meade practiced law at Deutsch Kerrigan, LLC for twelve years as a partner in the Professional Liability and Commercial Litigation department, handling several complex legal and CPA malpractice and insurance defense claims. Prior to attending law school, Charlotte worked on Capitol Hill in Washington D.C. for U.S. Representative Richard Baker (LA, 6th District), as well as for the lobbying office of Adams and Reese, LLP.

Since 2017, Charlotte has been a partner with Meade Young, LLC handling predominately legal malpractice claims on both the plaintiff and defense sides. For the last several years, Charlotte has also volunteered as a legal fee dispute arbitrator for the Louisiana State Bar Association, and as a volunteer child advocate for the Pro Bono Project's Child in Need of Care program.

During her career as a litigator, Charlotte advised her clients in many mediations where she developed the ability to view the case from both sides. In her years of practice, Charlotte became adept at analyzing the merit of complex malpractice, business dispute and insurance defense cases. She has always been gifted at working well with her colleagues and adversaries.

Charlotte and her husband, also an attorney, are blessed to be raising four amazing children: Jack, Allison, Rogan and Hunter.

Charlotte is admitted to the Louisiana Bar since 2005, as well as to the U.S. District Courts: Eastern, Western and Middle, and U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. She is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association and the Federal Bar Association.